

I am against the proposed changes in Media Ownership, I think it is a bad idea with regards to the listening and viewing public out here. It puts too much power over what we get to hear and see. We have radio stations that play the same music over and over all day long, tape broadcast to us from somewhere else in the country. We have some good local stations and we'd like to keep them.